

GIRL CYCLIST IS THROWN 30 FEET BY FAST AUTO

Party in Machine Speeds Away,
Leaving Victim Unconscious in Street.

Dorothy Crehore, daughter of Albert C. Crehore, a New York electrical engineer, living at No. 49 North Broadway, Yonkers, was thrown thirty feet last evening by an automobile on North Broadway, near Hudson Terrace, Yonkers. Miss Crehore was riding her bicycle when the automobile sped up Broadway. Miss Crehore guided her wheel close to the curb, but the auto kept straight ahead at high speed and struck into the bicycle.

Miss Crehore was thrown into the air and landed on the sidewalk, where she lay unconscious. She was badly hurt. The autoists continued at greater speed.

William Layton, of No. 72 Warburton avenue, and Miss Margaret Fulton, of No. 127 Glenwood avenue, saw the accident, and both reported to the police that they saw the number of the auto plainly, which was "24-110, N.Y."

Joseph Eastman, a lawyer at No. 71 Broadway, who has a summer home in Tarrytown, is holder of automobile license No. 24-110, New York. Over the telephone from his Tarrytown home he said to-day:

"My daughter was in the machine yesterday, and she told me when she returned that while they were passing through Yonkers there was some excitement because a girl riding a bicycle became scared at the approach of the automobile, and, riding to the curb, fell

CUT THROAT WITH RAZOR.

Silvers Ocher, fifty-two years old, a dealer in toys, cut his throat with a razor last night at his home, No. 35 Linden street, Williamsburg. At the German Hospital, where he was taken, it was stated to-day that Ocher would probably get well. He had been dependent since his wife died five months ago.

WON'T SELL TO MRS. SAGE.

Although offered four times the tax value of her property at Sag Harbor, L.I., Miss Phoebe Seaman has declined Mrs. Russell Sage's offer for her property, which is described as a site for a Jewish cemetery. Library and library is to be a gift from Mrs. Sage to Sag Harbor. Mrs. Sage offered $10,000 for the Seaman property.
